EMPOWERING WOMEN IN CRISIS: LOCAL OUTREACH PROGRAM ANSWERS THE CALL

BIRMINGHAM, AL — Amid overflowing shelters, rising financial strain, and families struggling to stay afloat, the Daughters of Abraham Women's Ministry, a women's outreach program of Saint John AME Church, where Reverend Dr. Ronald D. Sterling is Pastor, is stepping in to help bridge the gap. To commemorate its 6th Anniversary, the organization will host a Celebration of Praise featuring Reverend Sharon Hearn, Pastor of New St. Mark AME Church, as its speaker, on Sunday, March 22, 2026, at 3:00 p.m. The celebration will take place at the historic Saint John AME Church in downtown Birmingham.

Founded on March 13, 2020, by the late Rev. Charles Marie Davis, the Daughters of Abraham ministry is a growing collective of women from diverse ages and backgrounds serving and connecting communities across the Greater Birmingham area. The organization aims to support other women recovering from divorce, addiction, domestic violence, and other crises.

"Our mission with Daughters of Abraham is simple yet urgent," stated the incoming President, Terry Beasley. "We aim to uplift and improve women's spiritual, social, and intellectual conditions so communities grow strong. We do not want women or their children facing hardship alone."

With the theme "Daughters in Faith and Spirit Working Together" at the forefront, the program will include the installation of new officers and inspire attendees to network and discover ways to use their special skills and talents to serve and impact their communities. Admission is free and open to all women.
